SHIP AND CREW PROBABLY LOST

chooner Palmer and Twelve Men Missing.

ape god still is cut off eared That More Vessels Will Be Added to the List of Wrecks When Communication Finally Is Restored. Schooner Nantasket Goes Ashore, But the Crew of Ten Is Saved—Several Other Ships Beached.

New York, Dec. 28.—With the news of the probable loss of the big five-masted schooner Davis Palmer with her crew of twelve men off Boston harbor and the wrecking of nine other vessels along the Massachusetts coast the opening chapter of the till taken on the sea by the great storm which swept New England was bared. Cape Cod is still cut off and it is feared more vessels must be added to the wreck list when communication is restored.

Wreckage borne into Boston harbor is believed to be evidence of the loss of the Palmer, Newport News for Boston, somewhere near the entrance to the harbor. The wreck itself has not been located. Captain L. K. McKeown, Newport News, was in command. The vessel carried coal.

The three-masted schooner Nantasket, carrying lumber to Boston, was hurled ashore at Scituate and probably will prove a total wreck. Volunteer lifesavers with the breeches buoy rescued her crew of ten.

The schooner Belle Halliday is ashore at Brant point, Nantucket. The fate of her crew is unknown, but it is believed that they have been rescued. She was from Philadelphia, loaded with railroad iron.

Crews of Both Ships Saved.

On the rocky shores of Martha's Vineyard two water logged schooners are fast. They are the A. K. McLean, a British vessel bound from Perth Amboy to Halifax, and the Stonington (Me.) schooner Maud Seward Port Reading for Provincetown. The crews of both have been taken off.

At Provincetown the sloop Bouinto is aground and in the flats of Plymouth harbor are four small schooners similarly distressed.

The telegraph companies report a capacity of about 25 per cent of the normal, while the telephone companies' resources have been restored.

to the extent of about 75 per cent. Railroad and trolley line schedules were largely filled.

Southeastern Massachusetts, Cape Cod's sandy peninsula particularly, and Rhode Island suffered most from the storm and are still in a demoralized condition as far as wire and transportation service go. New Bedford and Fall River have been cut off since Sunday morning.

ITALIAN LABORER KILLED

Attempted to Slide Down Cable From High Building.

Duluth, Dec. 28.—Tony Viloa, an Italian laborer employed on the fifteenth story of the Alworth building, fell fourteen stories to his death as he was quitting work.

With a spirit of bravado he ignored the usual method of descending the ladders and grasped the steel cable which is used for hoisting material to the top of the building to slide down it. The cable is kept oiled all the time to prevent it wearing rapidly and the moment Viloa gave his weight to it he went down like a shot. He could not check his descent perceptibly and arrived at the ground with a crash that killed him instantly.

MYSTERY SURROUNDS ROCK ISLAND DEAL

New York Exchange to Make an Investigation.

New York, Dec. 28.—The New York Stock Exchange has an investigation on its hands. Common stock of the Rock Island company rose 31 1/4 points almost immediately after the opening, then even more suddenly dropped to 50. Thereby hangs a mystery or a fiasco or something that the governors of the stock exchange, with characteristic dispatch, will sift to the bottom.

With the close of the day's session, the governors quickly held a conference, and it was announced that a special investigation had been instituted. Francis L. Eames, former president of the exchange; J. T. Atterbury and Ernest Groesbeck were appointed a committee to conduct the investigation. Conservative members of the exchange are much exercised over the episode, and a rigid and searching inquiry is demanded with summary punishment of the offenders if their guilt is established.

Perham Goes to Washington.

Officers of the Rock Island disclaim any responsibility for the movement. At the office of Daniel G. Reid, who with ex-Judge W. H. Moore is the acknowledged leader of the Rock Island group, it was said that Mr. Reid was indisposed. Another report said that he was entertaining a house party at his country home near here. Judge Moore arrived in the city from Chicago and said that personally he knew nothing of the excitement until told of it upon his arrival in New York.

So much mystery and confusion surround the movement that anything like a clear explanation seems well nigh impossible. During the brief session which the governors of the exchange held several members who figured in the buying and selling were called before the committee, but no details regarding the preliminary investigation were made public. Those brokers credited with executing the orders declined to throw any light on the subject. They will be called to testify later.

Stories purporting to explain the situation are numerous and conflicting. One theory was that an attempt at manipulation in the stocks had miscarried.

The day's operations in Rock Island common totaled approximately 218,000 shares, or more than 25 per cent of the whole.

WOUNDED BY HER COUSIN

Little Minnesota Girl Probably Fatally Hurt.

Red Wing, Minn., Dec. 28.—Ruth Mitchell, a five-year-old girl of Lake City, was shot accidentally by her cousin, Ralph Smith, and her injuries are likely to prove fatal. An older brother had been out rabbit hunting during the day and, coming home at noon, he placed the gun against the wall while he got ready for dinner. Ralph, eleven years old, saw the gun and, in a playful mood, seized it and aimed it at his little cousin Ruth across the room. The gun was discharged, terribly mutilating the child's jaw and tongue and severing the jugular vein. Physicians were summoned, but there is very little hope of her recovery.

MAY BE ASKED TO INTERCEDE

President Taft May Take Hand in Switchmen's Strike.

PERHAM GOES TO WASHINGTON

Labor Leader to Request Federal Government Authorities to Take Action in Regard to the Strike in the Northwest—Should His Efforts Fail It Is Said There Will Be a General Strike.

St. Paul, Dec. 28.—The switchmen's strike has reached such a point that should the federal authorities fail to intercede some of the employees affiliated with the switchmen will undoubtedly be called out. Strike leaders say that despite efforts of the railway department of the American federation toward a peaceful settlement three orders may go out of their own accord within three days.

The freight handlers, machinists and railway clerks, who are the best organized in this territory, except the switchmen and comprise more than 2,600 men, are likely to strike in sympathy, it was reported at strike head quarters.

Reports from Buffalo, Chicago and St. Louis, where the news of the breaking off of negotiations at the governor's office in St. Paul was received, indicate unrest among the men and the belief that the Chicago conference does not give promise of easy settlement.

The machinists employed in the railway shops in St. Paul will hold a meeting at federation hall. The strike situation will be discussed, but what action will be taken is problematical, according to President Van Lear of the International Association of Machinists.

He said that the railway department is anxious to avoid any extension of the strike, but neither he nor the other labor leaders could prevent the men from striking if they wished to do so.

The freight handlers and the railway clerks in the Twin Cities are holding meetings every night and are said to be ready to strike in sympathy. It was denied by one of the strike leaders that the three organizations had already decided to strike, but he said that a vote on that question could be taken by the orders in twenty-four hours.

Wilbur Brageins, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, Kansas City, and A. D. Low, president of the International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way Employees, Detroit, Mich., have left for their homes.

Perham Goes to Washington.

H. P. Perham, chairman of the railway department, a vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, left for Washington to ask the government authorities to take action in regard to the strike.

Mr. Perham said that he would first see the interstate commerce commission and call its attention to conditions in this territory. He will point out that interstate commerce is being interfered with and a sympathetic strike pending which would not only tie up the railroads but paralyze business in the Northwest.

It was intimated that if the commission refused to act President Taft might be asked to intercede.

"What if your efforts to secure the intervention of the government fail?" Mr. Perham was asked.

"Then there will undoubtedly be a general strike," was the emphatic reply.

President Hawley of the Switchmen's union further asserted:

"Several other members of the railroad council besides Mr. Perham left for their headquarters to make preparations for a strike of their respective orders."

In the conference between the railroads and the labor leaders the railroad officials refuse to take back all the switchmen at once, but agreed to reemploy all those they have places for. They gave the switchmen until 12 o'clock Wednesday to accept this offer. The offer was immediately rejected by the labor leaders.

Governor Eberhart said he regretted very much that negotiations had come to an end without a settlement, but he still had hope that it would be brought about some way.

Homesteader Shot on His Claim.

Mandan, N. D., Dec. 28.—Attacked by would-be murderers while alone in his claim shack near Flasher, Ike Barton was shot in the head and now lies in Flasher hospital in a critical condition. The shot at Barton was taken by men whose names are known to the authorities, Barton having been able to identify his assailants. No reason is known for the crime.

"MICHAEL'S"

PEACE IN SIGHT IN NICARAGUA

Estrada Willing to Meet Madriz Half Way.

Managua, Nicaragua, Dec. 28.—President Madriz has announced that he has received a telegram from General Estrada, in command of the revolutionaries at Bluefields, in answer to his message of Dec. 22 expressing a desire to reach some understanding that would lead to the re-establishment of peace.

General Estrada reciprocated this sentiment and declares his readiness to meet the proposition submitted by the president half way.

President Madriz, who was elated over the friendly statement, said:

"I will immediately arrange a meeting of peace commissioners of both sides to discuss terms. I am confident of a satisfactory outcome."

It is announced on reliable authority that Melico has formally accepted the responsibility for Zelaya's person and has agreed to prevent his return to Nicaragua. The status of the ex-president in Mexico practically is that of a prisoner.

Perham Goes to Washington.

H. P. Perham, chairman of the railway department, a vice president of the American Federation of Labor, and president of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, left for Washington to ask the government authorities to take action in regard to the strike.

Mr. Perham said that he would first see the interstate commerce commission and call its attention to conditions in this territory. He will point out that interstate commerce is being interfered with and a sympathetic strike pending which would not only tie up the railroads but paralyze business in the Northwest.

It was intimated that if the commission refused to act President Taft might be asked to intercede.

"What if your efforts to secure the intervention of the government fail?" Mr. Perham was asked.

"Then there will undoubtedly be a general strike," was the emphatic reply.

President Hawley of the Switchmen's union further asserted:

"Several other members of the railroad council besides Mr. Perham left for their headquarters to make preparations for a strike of their respective orders."

In the conference between the railroads and the labor leaders the railroad officials refuse to take back all the switchmen at once, but agreed to reemploy all those they have places for. They gave the switchmen until 12 o'clock Wednesday to accept this offer. The offer was immediately rejected by the labor leaders.

SENATOR KNUTE NELSON ILL

Takes a Heavy Cold, Which Settles on His Lungs.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Senator Nelson of Minnesota is not in first rate physical condition at present. He has taken a heavy cold, which has settled on his lungs, and there is some danger.

At the Carnegie home it was said his condition was not serious.

Mr. Carnegie had arranged for the dinner several weeks ago and had invited, among others, President Taft. The president was unable to come to New York on account of the storm.

WOLVES ATTACK A FARMER

Illinois Man Has Narrow Escape From Death.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—A pack of eight timber wolves attacked Henry Lund and his horses while he was driving through the woods near Montgomery, Ill.

The wolves first attacked the horses, severely biting them, and then attempted to leap into the sleigh. Lund fought desperately with a heavy whip and his horses, bleeding and exhausted from a long gallop through the heavy roads, managed to reach a clearing, where the wolves were frightened off.

Farmers have organized a band to find the lair of the wolves.

Entire Family Stricken.

Red Wing, Minn., Dec. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyer and their two children, residing twelve miles south of Red Wing, are critically ill of trichinosis, the result of eating fresh pork.

LITTLE BOOSTS FOR BRAINERD

Brainerd has a wide awake set of merchants who carry a fine line of merchandise. These merchants want your trade.

There is neither sense or economy in sending away for goods to mail order houses and we wonder that any body finds it necessary to do so. We also wonder why these merchants want home trade and talk home trade and kick if they do not get the home trade—we wonder why they do not buy and sell Brainerd made flour. The Hays-Weaver Company makes this flour here out of home grown wheat, employ home people to do the work and buy of home dealers every ounce of goods they need. Ask the local merchant why he does not turn in and boost home products. If he does not does he have any good reason for urging you to buy of him? Isn't there a merchant or two in your vicinity who ought to have these statements shoved under his nose about eight times a week? Wouldn't you take a good deal of pleasure in rubbing it into him just a little bit? Well shoot it into him.

The east, where the people think of Minnesota in the winter time with a shiver, has been tied up with a Christmas blizzard for several days and the most severe storm that has visited that part of the country in ten years has been in progress. Local traffic from Pennsylvania to Maine has been tied up, and many people have lost their lives. In the streets of New York 14,000 men were at work on Monday cleaning them from snow at an expense of $200,000 to the commonwealth for getting things again in their normal condition and open to traffic after the great storm.

The general public seems to have been getting inside state fair history and from published accounts it isn't a bad snap to be on the inside. The sooner the public is taken into the confidence of state fair affairs the better it'll be for the future of that organization. A state institution should not be subject to unjust criticism and its affairs should be so conducted that no suspicion will attach to it, as Minnesota's state fair is one that the whole state takes pride in and it is an advertisement that is worth many times its legiti-mate cost.

BOYS ARE PUT ON PROBATION

Sentences of Ramsey and Wesley Suspended by Judge Under Law Passed Last Winter

OLSON BEING TRIED TODAY

Attorney Crowell Asked Separate Trial of Lads Charged With Assaulting Frank Pichler

It took the jury in the case of the State of Minnesota against Frank Ramsey and Frank Wesley, charged with assaulting Arthur Stinehagen, only half an hour Monday afternoon to come to an agreement. Court, however, had adjourned by that time, because Attorney Crowell was unable to proceed with the trial of indictments against Olson, Kalland and Shanks. By agreement of the attorneys in the Ramsey-Wesley case the jury found a sealed verdict, which was read at the opening of court this morning. It was found to be "guilty as charged in the indictment."

The court then took up the case against Charles Olson, his attorney having demanded a separate trial, and the task of securing a jury was commenced. Hon. S. F. Alderman, local attorney for the Northern Pacific is assisting the county attorney in the trial of these cases. The assault case was the one taken up. Olson, together with Kalland and Shanks, were, it is charged, apprehended stealing brass at the Northern Pacific shops and when discovered assaulted Frank Pichler, a machinist's helper. All three were indicted both for assault and grand larceny.

When court convened after dinner Judge McClenahan called Frank Ramsey and Frank Wesley up for sentence. He delivered a plain earnest talk, that he said, should be a warning not only to the prisoners, but to all old and young. The language used alone, he stated, was enough to deserve punishment, and that even had the jury found a verdict of not guilty, still the affair would have been disgraceful. One unfortunate feature of the case he said was that the punishment must fall in a large part on those utterly blameless, on the relatives who must bear the disgrace and put up for the fine. For this reason he said that for the first time he would take advantage of the law passed at the last session of the legislature giving him the discretion of suspending the sentence, and putting the prisoners on probation until the next term of the District court, which convenes May 24th, 1910. He passed a sentence of a fine of $75 each and each to pay $30.00 each. If the costs are paid at once and a bond of $100 or a cash deposit of $75 is made to secure the payment of the fine, then the boys are to be at liberty on probation until the next term of the district court. If the costs are paid and the fine is not secured then the prisoner is to serve 60 days in jail, and if neither the costs or the fine is paid, then the alternative penalty is 90 days in jail. The terms of the suspension are that it may be revoked by the court without notice, should the defendants be involved in any further trouble.

There were ten jurors secured this forenoon out of the regular panel for the Olson case, the following being accepted:

Fred Hanson.
Gustav Menz.
A. D. Peterson.
J. W. Olson.
R. B. Terry.

Peter Peterson.
Milton Gorton.
George Simpson.
W. H. Onstine.
John Haggberg.

This exhausted the regular panel and Judge McClenahan ordered a special venire of two jurors to take the place on the regular panel of two who had been excused. The venire was returnable at 1:30 this afternoon and the following names were reported:

The clerk of the court reported the names of David Davis and George W. Northrup as jury men to complete the panel.

When the matter of the sentencing of Ramsey and Wesley which had been set for 11:45 this forenoon came up Wesley was not in the court room. Judge McClenahan stated that he would take the matter up at 1:30 and said that he did not wish to issue a bench warrant for him and trusted that he would be on hand court then adjourned until this afternoon.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS' TEST

Date For Examination Set for February 5th, and Applications Should be Made at Once

Washington, D. C., December 27, 1909.—Any person of good judgment, who has received an ordinary common school education, can readily and easily pass the test to be given applicants for census enumerators' places on Saturday, Feb. 5, the date finally set by U. S. Census Director Durand, according to an announcement from the census bureau today. This will be a comforting assurance to the several thousand who are believed to be contemplating application for the places.

It was emphatically stated at the bureau that the test will be an eminently reasonable and practical one, similar to that applied to applicants at the twelfth census. It will consist of filling out a sample schedule of population from a description, in narrative form, of typical families; and, in case of enumerators whose work will be in the rural districts, they will be called upon to fill out an additional sample schedule of agriculture, from information furnished by the census bureau. All persons, whether women or men, who may desire to become census enumerators must be citizens of the United States; residents of the supervisor's district for which they wish to be appointed must be no less than 18 nor more than 70 years of age; must be physically able to do the work; must be trustworthy, honest and of good habits; must have at least an ordinary education and must be able to write plainly and with reasonable rapidity.

Those who can comply with these requirements are invited to put in their applications, as there will be at least 68,000 enumerators' places to be filled by the middle of March in preparation for the enumeration beginning April 15.

Application forms, with full instructions for filling in, and complete information concerning the test and the method of appointment, can be secured by writing to the supervisor of census for the supervisor's district in which the applicant lives. All applications, properly filled in must be filed with the supervisors not later than January 25, as any received after that date cannot be considered.

Headquarters for this district have been opened at Alexandria and applications for blanks should be made to E. E. McCrea, Alexandria.

The Second district seems to be certain of a spirited congressional contest at the coming election. Paul Ewert, who was a candidate two years ago but was defeated, is said to be looking the field over with a view of contesting for the nomination with Dinehart and Ellsworth who are already out in the open for the republican nomination. Mr. Ewert is now connected with the federal legal department in Washington.

WM. BOLANDER WAS FOUND DEAD

Former Brainerd Man Was Found Dead in Bed in Deerwood Monday Morning

LITTLE WAS KNOWN OF HIM

Said to Have Belonged to Salvation Army, but was Apparently Not Well Known

Wm. Bolander, formerly of Brainerd was found dead in Deerwood Monday morning. He had rented a small house or shack and was keeping bachelor's hall there. A neighbor was in the house at 10:30 Monday evening and he was all right, but went there at 6 o'clock Monday morning and found him dead in his bed.

Ralph Mooney, deputy coroner, was summoned and went to Deerwood Monday afternoon, returning on the midnight train with the body. Mr. Mooney decided that no inquest was necessary as there was no suspicion of foul play.

Bolander was a laborer and his residence is given in the directory as in the rear of 201 Bluff avenue west. Of late, however, he is reported to have been staying with Eugene Morey and family, prior to going to Deerwood. He is said to have been prominent in Salvation army circles, but few business men seem to know him and his name appears only in the last directory.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portions of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running humor or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"The Intruder" Last Night

The Frank E. Long stock company opened at the opera house with the production of "The Intruder," a four-act society drama. Miss Nana Sullivan, as Mildred Hastings, made quite a hit, as did Harry Head in the comedy part of Buster. Frank E. Long, as Col. Budd, also showed up well and the company was fairly strong throughout. The specialties were above the average put on by stock companies. The offering tonight is "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," a play which has been put on before in Brainerd and which is replete with fun from start to finish. Tickets 10, 20 and 30 cents. Seats on sale at Dunn's drug store.

Granite and Lime.

Granite is the lowest rock in the earth's crust. It is the bedrock of the world and shows no evidence of animal or vegetable life. It is the parent rock from which all the other rocks have been either directly or indirectly derived. It is claimed by scientists that all the lime in the world has at some time no doubt been a portion of many different animals and possibly of human beings also.

Work of the Earthworm.

When we behold a wide, soft, rounded expanse we should remember that its smoothness, on which so much of its beauty depends, is mainly due to all the inequalities having been slowly leveled by worms. It is a marvelous reflection that the whole of the superficial mold over any such expanse has passed and will pass again every few years through the bodies of worms. The plow is one of the most ancient and most valuable of man's inventions, but long before he existed the land was, in fact, regularly plowed by earthworms. It may be doubted whether there are many other animals which have played so important a part in the history of the world as have these lowly organized creatures. Some other animals, however, still more lowly organized—namely, corals—have done far more conspicuous work in having constructed innumerable reefs and islands in the great oceans, but these are almost confined to the tropical zones.

There is Proof that Occident Flour is Highest Grade in the World

HERE is proof in all the twelve great Occident Mills—where every day's run of wheat is put through the most rigid test.

Proof in the Occident laboratories—where famous food experts analyze every day's run of flour. Where they also analyze other leading makes, and by comparison prove that Occident Flour is higher grade than any other in the world.

Proof in thousands of homes—where the housewife would never think of substituting any other flour for Occident. She has proof every baking day that no flour in the world is so good. It shows in her pies, her biscuits, muffins, bread, cake—everything that flour is used for.

There is further proof at the Occident Mills, where expert bakers put Occident Flour through severer baking tests even than the housewife—every day, several times a day. It must be uniformly best.

Perhaps you have never used Occident Flour. Then read this plan—

Try It At Our Expense—If It's Not The Best Flour You Ever Used—Get Your Money Back.

Go to your grocer and get a sack of Occident Flour—use it for as many bakenings as you please.

Then, if you are not convinced beyond question that Occident Flour is better—gives better and surer results than any flour you ever used, go back to your grocer, and he is authorized to refund, without argument, the full purchase price of any package of Occident which you do not find satisfactory.

You never heard of a fairer offer than that—did you? The few cents more in price of Occident Flour mean little to you. But—

It is just enough to enable the millers to raise the standard of Occident Flour to highest grade in the world—from wheat to package. You will see the difference in your baking.

Please get a sack in time for next baking day.

CONQUERED HER RIVAL.

Pretty and Pathetic Story of Jenny Lind and Grisi.

Jenny Lind and Grisi were both rivals for popular favor in London. Both were invited to sing the same night at a court concert before the queen. Jenny Lind, being the younger, sang first and was so disturbed by the fierce, scornful look of Grisi that she was at the point of failure when suddenly an inspiration came to her.

The accompanist was striking the final chords. She asked him to rise and took the vacant seat. Her fingers wandered over the keys in a loving prelude, and then she sang a little prayer which she had loved as a child. She hadn't sung it for years. As she sang she was no longer in the presence of royalty, but singing to loving friends in her fatherland.

Softly at first the plaintive notes floated on the air, swelling louder and richer every moment. The singer seemed to throw her whole soul into that weird, thrilling, plaintive "prayer." Gradually the song died away and ended in a sob. There was a silence—the silence of admiring wonder.

The audience sat spellbound. Jenny Lind lifted her sweet eyes to look at the scornful face that had so disconcerted her. There was no fierce expression now. Instead a teardrop glistened on the long, black lashes, and after a moment, with the impulsive-ness of a child of the tropics, Grisi crossed to Jenny Lind's side, placed her arm about her and kissed her, uttering regardless of the audience.

Revised the Bill.

A young solicitor got a verdict for a client of considerable riches, but little beauty. Shortly afterward, in due course of business, he sent her a somewhat formidable account. On the following day his client called on him and asked him if he had been serious in his proposal.

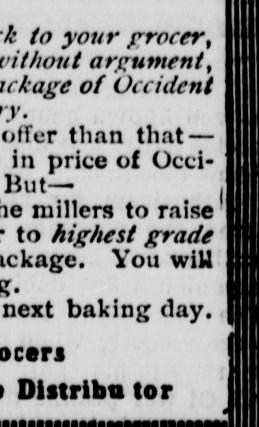

"Proposal? But I have not proposed," replied the solicitor, somewhat agitated.

"What?" replied the fair client calmly. "You have asked for my fortune! I should have supposed that you would at least have had the politeness to take me along with it."

The next day she received a revised account as follows:

"Miss B., debtor to Mr. C. for legal expenses performed."

"Then in place of 'I. S. D.' was 'Total amount, Miss B.'—London Telegraph.

SETTLERS NEARLY BROKE

Legislation May Be Necessary to Relieve Them.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Settlers on government irrigation projects in the West find themselves embarrassed financially in their efforts to bring their lands to a state of cultivation and it is probable that legislation to relieve them will be considered at the present session. Statements made to members of the senate committee on irrigation on their trip of investigation last summer were to the effect that there was a serious error in the law, and that there was no provision for giving settlers some evidence of title to their holdings, which could be used as a basis for a loan to develop their lands.

Most of the settlers went on the lands as soon as the government announced that irrigation works were to be constructed. The reclamation service officials did everything they could by posting notices in postoffices and through the newspapers, to discourage the rush, because of the uncertainty as to the time when water could be furnished. These warnings were not sufficient to discourage settlers, however, and most of them took up land before a spade had been stuck in the ground by the government contractors. Most of the settlers had money enough to tide them over a couple of seasons. None of the irrigation works were completed in time, however, and when the water was actually put on the land, the settlers were practically broke.

AEROPLANE IS A MARVEL

Western Inventor Said to Have Made Successful Flight.

Tacoma, Wash., Dec. 28.—Reginald Weatherby, twenty-two years old, who lives at Spanaway Lake, eleven miles south of here, has achieved a triumph in aviation, after three years devoted to experiments, that gives him high rank as an aeronaut. He has completed and successfully tried out his aluminiun aeroplane.

With two companions on board the air craft Weatherby circled the summit of Mount Rainier. The party alighted on the rim of the crater of the mountain at an elevation of nearly 15,000 feet, and then sailed off again over the snowfields.

Weatherby was educated at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston. He developed his airship model at his uncle's home and is jubilant over his success. His friends are amazed.

A feature of the Weatherby machine is a substitution of a system of undulating planes for the ordinary revolving propeller, by means of which the inventor has demonstrated a speed of 120 miles an hour without vibration or jar.

Report further has it that the princely sum offered does not appeal at all to Mr. St. Clair.

GAMBLING ON FARM PRODUCTS

President Taft Would Prohibit It by Legislation.

HUNT'S LEGITIMATE INDUSTRY

Chief Executive Believes the Gullible Public Should Be Protected From This Form of Speculation—Leading Lawyers of the Administration Have Been Consulted on the Subject.

Washington, Dec. 28.—Gambling in wheat, corn, cotton and other products of the farm will be prohibited hereafter if a recommendation soon to be made to congress by President Taft is enacted into law. The president is convinced that legitimate industry suffers from the gambling in the futures and he believes the gullible public should be protected from this form of speculation. Accordingly, he has decided to urge congress to adopt a law that will be as effective in dealing with produce gambling as were the laws aimed at the sale of lottery tickets and the great concerns that were engaged in the business.

The evil of such gambling will form the subject of a conference soon to be held at the White House. The president is deeply interested and will make known his views on the question either in a special message or in a report on a bill soon to be introduced by Representative Scott of Kansas, chairman of the house committee on agriculture.

Consulted With Lawyers.

The leading lawyers of the administration have been consulted by President Taft in his consideration of the evil of such gambling. He believes that the problem should be approached with the greatest care and a measure framed that will solve it without in any way interfering with the exchange, transfer and sale of grain by legitimate bodies. It was learned that the president has invited a number of officers to confer with him on the subject, among them Secretary of State Knox, Attorney General Wickersham, Representative Scott, Representative Lovering of Massachusetts and Commissioner of Corporations Herbert Knox Smith.

The government has already given some attention to the question of produce gambling. The cotton exchange in New York and like bodies in other cities have been subjected to a close inquiry by the commissioner of corporations. Incidentally the authorities have made inquiries as to gambling in futures as a general proposition, with the result that a decision has been reached that the federal government should deal with this question so far as lies within its power and authority.

ON COOK'S POLAR RECORDS

Copenhagen Committee May Make a Second Report.

Copenhagen, Dec. 28.—The special committee of Copenhagen university, which investigated Dr. Frederick A. Cook's polar records, is now considering whether or not it will publish a second report, giving further details of the work. If the committee should decide to do so, it will issue the report about the middle of January.

A member of the committee said that some of the details of Cook's narrative of his expedition were fabricated and his papers showed that he had used calculations furnished by Captain Loose. The second report, he added, would present evidence to that effect.

New Warships to Join the Navy.

Washington, Dec. 28.—The navy department plans to place in commission by the end of the calendar year 1910 the battleships Michigan about Jan. 1, the South Carolina later and the Delaware and North Dakota in the spring. There will be placed in commission in that period about twelve destroyers, two submarines and two colliers.

Paid for Committing Crime.

Sandusky, O., Dec. 28.—Mystery surrounding the killing of Agosta Dema, a leader in the large Italian colony here, was cleared up by Frank Benah, who said he had committed the murder for $400. This sum, he said, was paid him by Jim Primer, another Italian, who, Benah explained, wanted to marry the victim's wife.

Montana Legislature Meets.

Helena, Mo. t., Dec. 28.—The legislature met in special session here to consider a proposed increase in the appropriation for an addition to the capitol building so as to make possible the use of Montana construction material. The legislature will also consider an appropriation for state publicity work in 1910.

ICE CAUSE OF FATAL SLIP

One Man Killed and Another Seriously Hurt at Canadian Soo.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Dec. 28.—One man dead and another seriously injured was the result of an accident on the Canadian canal. The men were engaged on canal repairs. John Gordon, lowering timbers from the walls, slipped on the icy surface, striking the bottom of the lock, and was instantly killed. The timbers became loosened and, falling, struck John Erickson at the bottom, breaking his right shoulder and arm and causing severe internal injuries. He may not recover.
